NATIONAL TICKET.

For President,
JAMES G. BLAINE,
of Maine.
For Vice President,
JOHN A. LOGAN,
of Illinois.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A Republican State Convention to nominate State officers, viz: A candidate for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, State Auditor, State Treasurer, Attorney-General, Register of Lands, Judge of Supreme Court, Railroad Commissioner, and for such other business as may properly come before it, will be held at Moberly on Tuesday, September 9th, 1884, at 11 o'clock A. M.

The basis of representation was fixed and will be the same for each county and the city of St. Louis as at the last State Convention on the Garfield vote, one delegate for each 300 votes or fraction of 150 or over.

The Republican county and city committees are directed to call delegate conventions in each county and the city of St. Louis to meet prior to the last Saturday, the 30th day, of August to select delegates, and any failure to so call in any county or in the city of St. Louis, the Republicans thereof may meet in mass convention at the court on Saturday, September 6th following, at 11 o'clock P. M., to select the number of delegates appointed to such county or city.

The secretary of each county convention or mass meeting will immediately certify to the Secretary of the State Committee the names of the delegates selected.

WM. WARNER, Chairman,
Kansas City, Mo.

The New York Times is the property of English capitalists. It is not at all strange that the Times is against Blaine.

HENRY WARD BEECHER rolls up his eyes, and refuses to support Blaine because he is corrupt. Perhaps Blaine's private life does not suit Beecher. Blaine has never been accused of licentiousness or fornication, and has never had to stand a public trial for seduction.—Kansas Chief.

Mr. Henry Ward Beecher wrote to the Peckskill committee, at New York: "Put me down 100 times against Blaine in letters two feet long every time." It is written down, in letters two feet long, that Mr. Blaine never seduced a friends wife, and then committed perjury in order to avoid punishment for adultery.—Kansas Chief.

SEVERAL gentlemen, whose names appeared in the list appended to the call for the Boston Independent meeting, have written to the Journal of that city saying that they never signed the document and have no sympathy with the movement. The Journal pertinently asks: "Is the movement to purify politics going to start out by something that might be called forgery?"

THE state convention has shown a decided preference for railroad attorneys and tattooed men as representatives at large of the Missouri Democracy in a national convention to inaugurate a reform campaign. The first Missouri Democrat who incautiously refers to the tattoo marks on the record of Jim Blaine after this is liable to hear something that will give him the lock-jaw.—Post Dispatch.

THE New York Post parades the names of the New York Herald, Evening Telegram, Boston Herald, Springfield Republican, Philadelphia Record, Philadelphia Times, Chicago Times and Chicago News as papers that have blotted Alaine and Logan's nomination! We believe it to be a fact that not one of these papers ever supported a Republican candidate for President since they were started. Having got along without their help heretofore, the Republican party will try to exist in the absence of their support hereafter.

Most of the delegates chosen are good men, interspersed with some of high standing, but as a whole they can hardly be said to be representative in character of the Democracy of the state. All, with the exception, perhaps, of O'Day and Mumford, are for Tilden for president, but we look in vain throughout the list for men who can be expected to wield commanding influence among the delegates from other states. That the persons just named should have defeated such discreet, conservative gentlemen as ex-Governor Charles H. Hardin, Judge James D. Fox, Mr. John G. Priest, or even the present unpopular governor of Missouri, gives no honor to the state.—St. Louis Republican.

GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS.

This man has placed himself in a position that justly calls down upon him the condemnation of all honorable and right minded Republicans. He was a delegate to the Chicago Convention, and when the resolution pledging the delegates to support the nominee was introduced, Mr. Curtis spoke against it, and said it was an insult, because every delegate that participated in the proceedings of the convention was in honor bound to stand by the nominee. Now this man that talked so grandly about honor has violated the very foundation principle of Republican governments. Unless there is some respect paid to the will of a majority when that will is honestly and intelligently expressed, then there can be no such thing as a Republican government. When men go into a convention they thereby agree, implicitly to stand by the result of the convention. Now, if Mr. Curtis had succeeded in nominating his man he would have expected the support of all the delegates in the convention. What has Mr. Curtis ever done that he should be made an exception to this rule.

In the cabin of the Mayflower this convention was made and signed by all on board. "We agree before God and each other that the freely expressed will of the majority shall be the law of all, which we will all obey." Mr. Curtis and the so-called independents have violated that solemn and fundamental compact. This was the compact that the fire-eaters of the South violated in the Charleston convention in 1860—they would not abide by the will of the majority and so they "split" the convention and then undertook to "split" the country. Mr. Curtis has forgotten the sturdy principles of his Pilgrim sires, but if he has forgotten them the great mass of the Republican voters have not. They are still loyal to that grand old covenant entered into by the Pilgrim Fathers. To maintain and establish that principle, a half million of men were put under the green sod between '61 and '65. Shall we forsake this principle and follow a political mountebank. It will be found that ninety-nine hundredths of the Republican voters will say to Mr. Curtis and his paper, you can go—we are going to stand by the old Republican party that saved the country in the hour of danger.

Mr. Curtis is welcome to all of the glory, honor, and cash that he will get in this little escapade of his.

The great mass of the American people are going to stand by James G. Blaine and John A. Logan, because they are the representatives of the best type of American statesmanship.

Let every Republican of Holt county be on duty from now until the closing of the polls in November. Let no duty be neglected. See to it that the majority in Holt be increased handsomely.

THE man who was at the head of the liberal Republican movement in New York, in 1872, and has always been an Independent on principle, refuse to train with the Schurz-Curtis clique of kickers. Col. Ethan Allen was chairman of the Greeley State Central committee, and is universally recognized as a man of great ability and influence. Just before the balloting began at Chicago he telegraphed to the Blaine headquarters as follows:

"Beware of those eleven hour Independents who are masquerading at Chicago. Most of them were zealous machine men while it brought pay and patronage. I speak for 500,000 honest Independents, who, in 1872, made war on the machine, when it was most powerful, who have never since repented, and who now demand a somebody and an American through and through as nominee for the presidency. Such a man is the civic hero of Maine. No minion of royalty, though he calls himself a chancellor and hails from Berlin, will venture to insult or snub the representative of this great Republic of James G. Blaine sits in the presidential chair."—Kansas City Journal.

CONGRESSMAN FINNEY's paper, the Chicago Citizen, the organ of the Irish nationalists, came out last week in earnest and enthusiastic advocacy of the election of the Republican ticket Blaine and Logan. The main argument advanced in behalf of the ticket and the cause is that the platform adopted at Chicago are thoroughly American, and by words and records say to all the world that the United States is a great nation and means to protect American interests at home and defend American citizens abroad. "The platform," says the Citizen, "is a new declaration of independence, not only for the party, but for national purposes. Every issue presented is exclusively American." The Citizen is said to be a power in the West and Northwest.

Is this Mr. Mumford the gentleman who was discovered a few years ago with $2,500 of a railroad company's slush money in his pocket? Is he our little tin Democratic tattooed man?—Post Dispatch.
